

CTVNews.ca Staff

Published Wednesday, November 19, 2014 7:09AM EST

1. Nanos on the numbers: After seven weeks of registering a gain in the Nanos Party Power Index the Conservatives have plateaued, according to the latest numbers in the Nanos Power Index.
2. Ice bucket aftermath: ALS Canada will be releasing the total amount of money Canadians raised during this year's Ice Bucket Challenge later this morning. More than 260,000 Canadians participated in the viral sensation that involved dumping a bucket of ice water on those nominated to complete the challenge. ALS Societies will be putting more than half the money towards research, and the rest toward support programs.
3. Robocall sentence coming: Michael Sona, who was found guilty of election fraud in August, will be sentenced on Wednesday. Sona, 26, was involved in the "robocall" scandal during the 2011 federal election and faces up to five years in prison.
4. Parliament's new anti-harassment policy. The committee governing House of Commons operations moved to establish a new anti-harassment policy on Parliament Hill Tuesday, in light of recent allegations of sexual harassment made against two suspended Liberal MPs. The committee has recommended a set of interim guidelines effective immediately, while Speaker of the House Andrew Scheer is expected to request more long-term policies going forward.
5. Dino bone fishing trip: A dad and his two sons say they found a fossil of a never-before-seen dinosaur while on a fishing trip in southern Alberta last summer. Experts say the fossil is extraordinarily well-preserved, with the dinosaur's head, neck and part of its spine all encased in a giant river boulder.

MOST WATCHED

LIVE2: World's largest plane departs Toronto

Extended: Cars and houses buried in snow

Extended: Time-lapse of Buffalo snowstorm

1 2 3 4

MORE NEWS FROM CANADA

NEW Plenty riding on whether SCC will hear appeal for off-reserve aboriginals

Toronto cop faces misconduct hearing on Canada's largest-ever mass arrest

N.L. bar patrons, workers detained in armed holdup: police

Families failed to prove wind turbines harmful, Ontario lawyer

argues

Cop ticketed vet during funeral procession on Remembrance Day

NEW

Footage of Toronto jewelry store robbery shows male suspects wearing burkas

---

Use of this Website assumes acceptance of Terms & Conditions and Privacy Policy

© 2014 BellMedia All rights reserved.

Bell Media Television