Kirkland Lake represented at Good Roads Conference

Friday, February 27, 2015 11:39:34 EST AM

Kirkland Lake representatives at the Ontario Good Roads/Rural Ontario Conference met with the Minister of Northern Development and Mines Michael Gravelle and with Bruce Strapp, CEO Northern Ontario Heritage Fund.

Councillor Todd Morgan attended with Nancy Allick, CAO and Mark Williams, Director of Physical Services.

“These are great opportunities to learn new strategies for cost savings and efficiencies for improving our municipalities as well as networking and sharing with councillors, mayors and staff from other rural municipalities,” said Councillor Morgan.

Keynote speakers at the conference included; Nik Nanos, President of Nanos Research, Premier Kathleen Wynne, Minister Lisa Rait, Transport Canada, Jim Wilson, Leader of Ontario PC, and Andrea Horwarth, Leader NDP. A total of 21 workshops were held around the following topics, asset management, communications, development and growth, law and order, revenue and savings, rural innovation and transportation.

The Kirkland Lake representatives attended a number of the workshops at the conference, which was held in Toronto from Feb. 22 to 25. The theme of the conference was Rebooting Ontario's Municipal Sector.
